Session III: 1:00 - 4:00 PM

Where Are We Going?

Seminar Chair – Stan Sidor, VP & Manager, GVA Kidder Mathews and ACOW President

This seminar will consider the future of the appraisal industry and profession, including possible AMC legislation for the State of Washington, “green” building trends, possible future impacts of the HVCC, and a review of other issues impacting the future of the profession (the “aging” of the appraiser population; recruitment, training, education, and retention of new appraisers, etc.)

ACOW Social, No Host Bar: 4:00 PM

Location: Howard Johnson Summit Inn (formerly known as Snoqualmie Summit Lodge) at Snoqualmie Pass.

Reservations at the Lodge: A block of rooms will be available at Howard Johnson Summit Inn for $80.00 for 1 king and $90.00 for 2 queens, plus tax/charges for the evening of Friday, August 21. To make reservations, call (425) 434-6300 or (800) 557-STAY (7829) and be sure to mention ACOW.

Continuing Education: Three hours of continuing education are being applied for from Washington State for the August 21 session, and six for the August 22 sessions.

Driving Directions: From Seattle: (52 miles) Take I-90 East, straight to Exit 52 (West Summit). At the end of the ramp, stay to the right. The Lodge is two blocks up on the left.

From Eastern Washington: Take I-90 West to Exit 53. At the end of the ramp, turn left passing under I-90. At the stop sign, turn right. The Lodge is two blocks up on the right.

Cancellation Policy: A charge of $25 will be applied to all cancellations received after August 14, 2009. No refunds will be given on or after August 19, 2009.
